

Matt Jackson, member of Pleasant View Mennonite Church in Hydro, OK, is being recommended to serve at least a one-year term as a member of the Financial Resources Team. He is married to Chanda and has three children; Zae, Piper, and Saylor. Matt is a graduate of Hesston College and Oklahoma State and holds a degree in Ag Business. He worked in Farm Credit System before moving to The Bank of the West in 2008 where he is currently the President and CEO in addition to being a director of the Oklahoma Bankers Association.